TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

THE RAILROAD DISASTER.

The Company to Blame for the Casualty.

Long Branch, 29.—An inquest on the bodies of those killed in the railroad accident will be held to-morrow. The badly wounded are cared for at neighboring farm houses. E. L. Bradley was picked up dead. He lived at 150 East Seventy-second street, New York, but was living for the summer at Ocean Beach. G. W. Demarest, provision dealer of Reade street, New York, died soon after the accident. Wm. R. Garrison, son of Commodore Chas. K. Garrison, is at the point of death. There are said to be a number of passengers missing, but the names are not reported. Railroad men who visited the wreck condemned the manager of the New York and Long Branch Railroad for not placing a guard, or safety rails, on each side of the track over the bridge, and some say the accident would have been nothing but a derailment if safety rails had been used. Chas. M. Woodruff, Newark, and James E. Mallory, banker, New York, are both dead. John T. Raymond, actor, had his collar bone broken, and ex-President Grant had his knee slightly bruised. The following persons were slightly cut and bruised: J. F. Page, William Tower, C. H. Tuccar, F. H. Hall, E. D. Webb, S. W. Lehman, Mrs. Chas. Newkirk, R. M. Gallows, S. E. Long, G. C. Scofield, D. M. Shaw, Joseph Brooks, Sam. J. Seligman, M. E. Reynolds, J. C. Westervelt, C. R. Fowler, Wm. Dinkelsfield, and wife, Morris H. Brown, G. R. Blanchard, A. B. Minerva, William and E. Webb, all of New York; C. J. Fox and wife, Miss Annie Scott, Philadelphia, John Buckle and Rev. Dr. Matthews, Ocean Grove, N. J.; J. B. Carmichael and H. C. Faulkerson, Elizabeth, N. J.; W. J. Hines, Ocean Beach, N. J.; C. H. Hall, Camden, N. J.; Henry Mordacai, Dallas, Texas; and J. A. Benedict, Elberon, N. J.

The report that John T. Raymond was injured by the railroad accident this morning is not correct.

Turf.

Chicago, 30.—The races to-day were run in a track inches deep in soft slippery mud, but the weather was beautiful. The attendance was slim.

First race, criterion stakes, two year old colts; three-fourths miles, pools "Ascender," 100, field thirty. "Lucky Baldwin" got away with the track. "Ascender" lapped him to the saddle skirts. At the half he was a length ahead of the field. Around the lower turn "Ascender" came to even with "Lucky Baldwin," and at the furlongs pole had a length the lead, and was apparently winner. At the distance stand Stoval rallied "Lucky Baltimore," and made a fine finish. "Ascender's" jockey being too confident and lost the race at the last jump. "Lucky Baldwin" winning by a short head. "Idle Pat" third; "Acetic" fourth. Time 1:28 1/2.
